

With a passion for helping businesses go from start to smart, Dana Abou Shackra has been providing digital media, presentation, graphic media, and copywriting services for businesses across a variety of industries. Dana received her Commerce Degree in Entrepreneurship and Innovation Strategy from Ryerson University in Toronto and worked, upon graduation, for the DMZ, the world's top university-based business incubator. She was also part of the launch team of the Sandbox, an accelerator program at Ryerson. Currently based in Lebanon, Dana runs Park Innovation Chouf, leads communication and marketing with Rural Entrepreneurs and supports the development of Atayeb al Jabal (a social impact start-up). She is VP of Visual Content with UNTOLD.
