

Elizabeth Cooper is the Founder and Principal of MAACS Biopharma Consulting, a boutique firm focused on helping pharmaceutical companies, life science start-ups and individuals reach their goals. Throughout her career, she has been a clinician and held roles in business development, marketing, strategic alliance, and corporate development in several pharma companies. Elizabeth leverages her experience to find the relevant information and ask the right questions to get to the heart of issues.

Using her warm, collaborative yet analytical style, she plants seeds and watches people and organizations flourish. Elizabeth is on the steering committee of multiple organizations including Women in Bio and Literacy Unlimited and a member of Women's Executive Network and Women Leaders in Pharma. She is passionate about helping women rise to their level of enjoyment and potential. Elizabeth is VP of Events with UNTOLD.
